Response to a K-9 Program Inquiry

Thank you for your inquiry into the Utah POST K-9 Program. Establishing a state-of-the-art program has been a major effort for the Police Academy. Accordingly, we are very proud of its success. We have been called the most constitutionally-conservative K-9 training center in the USA. A survey in 2009 regarding Narco Detector Dogs revealed that the K-9 Program has been responsible for well over 24 billion dollars of illegal narcotics seizure since its inception in 1989. Many hundreds of felons have been captured and dozens of law enforcement officers' lives have been saved, due to the actions of Patrol Dogs trained at Utah POST.

Utah POST utilizes a "Reality-Based" format for K-9 training. The initial phase of every class deals with the fundamentals of training and as soon as the Handler/Dog are ready, the remainder of the class is conducted in a real-world environment. Likewise, the Officer receives classroom lectures on important lectures and legal issues which are then applied in scenario training later in the courses. The goal is to have a balance of training/deployment technology within the constraints of Constitutionally-established citizens' rights. Accordingly, we have created a training environment that resolves both concerns.

The basic course presented here is for Patrol Dogs and Handlers. The curriculum corresponds to professional- and court-accepted standards. Options are available for agencies with higher intensity/volume of Patrol Dog needs, as well as those agencies who may deploy less often. Each skill level consists of the following skills: tracking/trailing of suspects/victims, criminal evidence recovery with a passive indication that does not contaminate its evidentiary value, obedience/agility, and criminal apprehension.

Of particular value is the fact that we are able to teach the dogs to discriminate between a fleeing or hostile suspect and a surrendering suspect or innocent person. In other words, we teach the dogs to discriminate the level of force to exhibit when encountering an individual. Two common K-9 “capture” philosophies of Patrol Dog training/deployment exist in America. These are most commonly identified as: FIND/BITE and FIND/BARK. Either philosophy, or even both, may be taught here (at the Handler’s option) to the same dog. The Utah Police Academy teaches the DISENGAGE behavior to all varieties of Patrol Dogs. The DISENGAGE is a “shut-down” command which may be issued when an exigent circumstance arises during an apprehension. In addition to Patrol Dogs, we offer training courses for Narcotics Detectors, Explosive Detectors, and other categories of Detector Dogs. Tactical Deployment (SWAT) Dogs are trained here also, upon demand from requesting agencies.

A Police Search and Rescue Dog (PSAR) course has been developed to aid in that unique function. This course has been adopted by multiple Utah ski resorts as beneficial to their avalanche responses. In addition to K-9 and Handler training, POST offers advanced training for all disciplines of K-9 Instructors, Judges, and Unit Administrators. An Instructor acquires specific knowledge and develops skills necessary to train K-9's and Handlers from entry level to certification. A Judge acquires knowledge and skill in the evaluation process for certification of "Streetworthiness."

An Administrator acquires knowledge on managing the day-to-day operations according to administrative and legal constraints. Simply stated, the K-9 is the “Tool,” the Handler is the “Operator,” the Instructor is the “Mechanic,” the Judge is the “Inspector,” and the Administrator is the “Coordinator.”

Utah POST is operated by legislated funds and other designated monies. No tuition fee is assessed to In-State officers of any government level. A service fee of $300.00 is assessed for each Out-of-State officer attending each training/deployment class (Patrol, Narco, etc.). There is no fee for In-State or Out-of-State officers attending the K-9 Supervisor course.

Patrol and Detector Dog courses are eight (8) weeks duration. POST has a dormitory facility (801) 256-2300) and Hotel/Motel accommodations are also available close to the Police Academy. K-9's can be housed at the POST kennel facility at no charge, first-come-first-served. Only six Out-of-State dogs are allowed to reside at the POST K-9 Kennel during any course.

The K-9 Program training is quite intensive due to the condensed course duration and quantity of information to be learned. To best serve the student/agency, POST emphasizes training the Handler how to train his/her own K-9. The graduating Handler becomes autonomous upon graduation and may complete the K-9's training at home if necessary. Most K-9's can be trained within the course duration. Additionally, the Handler is trained on the procedures to conduct In-Service (maintenance) training after leaving POST. As a point of clarification, POST adheres to the law enforcement consensus of recommending four hours of In-Service training per discipline per dog per week.

Handlers and K-9's may submit to an examination and receive a corresponding certification. A Handler student must attend with a K-9. An Instructor and/or Judge student may attend with or without a K-9. Certifications are effectual as follows: K-9's for 12 months; Handlers for duration of their assignment; Instructors and Judges for 36 months. Re-certification when the respective certificate has expired is available upon request. Some officers may have prior K-9 training or certification at facilities other than Utah POST. If an officer seeks to receive credit for prior training, merely submit documentation so POST may evaluate the possibility of waiving a portion of a training course. The minimum amount of time a student is allowed to participate in any course is 40 hours, regardless of the extent of prior training. Description of K-9 Classes

Patrol Dog: 17 Oct - 8 Dec 2016, 3 Apr - 25 May 2017, 16 Oct - 7 Dec 2017.

A training course for K-9's, Handlers, Instructors, and Judges of Patrol Dogs. The curriculum is founded in Reality-Based training concepts and includes in-depth instruction for Handlers training their own Patrol Dogs, Instructors training Patrol Dogs or Handlers, and Judges training Patrol Dogs, Handlers, or Instructors and also evaluating/certifying Dogs, Handlers, and Instructors. Handlers are supervised closely as they train their own dogs, with the intent that the Handlers may be autonomous upon graduation. Instructors are supervised closely as they train Handlers and Patrol Dogs, providing considerable "student teaching" opportunities. Judges are supervised closely as they evaluate Patrol Dogs, Handlers, and Instructors throughout the course. All three skill levels are taught simultaneously via an innovative "Tiered Skill Level" training environment. Considerable time is spent in report writing and preparation for criminal/civil court testimony. Certification may be acquired in each of these skill-sets via Single-Blind examinations.

The Handler may choose to train his/her Patrol Dog in either the Detaining concepts, Handler Control concepts, or may teach both skills to the same Dog. This new protocol is intended to provide a wider variety of options for Agencies and Officers in their Patrol Dog applications.
