Office of the Utah State Auditor Releases Investigation of Draper City's Allocation of Incremental Costs to Traverse Ridge Special Service District

Salt Lake City, UTAH –

The Office of the Utah State Auditor (Office) today released its Investigation of Draper City's Allocation of Incremental Costs to the Traverse Ridge Special Service District. The Office performed this investigation as a result of allegations received through the Office's hotline.

The full Report may be found on the Office's website, auditor.utah.gov, specifically at <http://financialreports.utah.gov/saoreports/2014/14-TRSD-8LDraperCityDraperCity.pdf>.

About the Office of the Utah State Auditor

The Office of the Utah State Auditor provides Utah taxpayers and government officials with an independent assessment of financial operation, statutory compliance, and performance management for state and local government.

Specific activities of the Office include performing financial audits, conducting Federal funds compliance audits, providing local government oversight, conducting agency and program performance audits, performing fraud and compliance audits, and operating the State Auditor Hotline for citizens to report suspected financial issues or improprieties. These capabilities strengthen Utah State Government and help taxpayers have confidence in the integrity of Utah's government agencies.

The Utah State Auditor is a Constitutional Officer of the State of Utah, elected directly by the state's citizens every 4 years. The role of the Utah State Auditor is authorized in Article VII, Section 15 of the Utah Constitution. For more information, see auditor.utah.gov.
