

Service Dogs

Dogs that meet the ADA definition of service animals are welcome.

-  1) You may be asked if your dog is required because of a disability, and/or
- 2) What task your dog has been trained to perform according to the ADA compliance requirements.
-  The ADA does not recognize emotional support animals. A doctor's letter does not give an emotional support animal public access rights.

For more information visit: www.ada.gov/service_animals_2010